"The longer I live the more I realize the impact of attitude on life. It is more important than the past, failures or successes. The remarkable thing is we have a choice every day regarding the attitude we will embrace for that day. We cannot change our past. The only thing we can do is play on the one string we have, and that is our attitude." C.S.

People come into our lives and walk with us a mile, and then because of circumsances they only stay a while. They serve a need within the days that move so quickly by, and then they are gone beyond our reach, we often wonder why, God only knows the reason that we meet and share a smile, why people come into our lives and walk with us a mile. HOMECOMING

A fun-filled time was had by all at the 2002 Homecoming festivities! The senior float, "Rock and Roll Randolph" was topped off with a little celebrity flair from our very own Sullee. A beautiful summer sun shone as our Harbormen and Harborwomen put up and even won some great battles in the sports arenas. Emerging from the homecoming court was an unexpected but exquisite royal pair with a beaming Queen Meg Crowley and towering King Nick DeVito. The action continued on well into the evening as an incredible volume of the student body appeared at the dance. From eight o'clock to eleven o'clock seniors basked in their first "senior" experience and their last ever Hingham Homecoming dance. Over the gleam of glittering dresses (or was it the glisten of the sweat on all those collared-shirt-clad chaps?) music bomped super-loud, dancers got their groove on and lasting memories shone even brighter.

Boys' Cross Country

The biggest team of any year, and loads of new PRs (those are "personal records" for the nonrunners out there) are proof of another successful Cross Country season. Captains Colin Ryan, Steve Fiascone, Nick Collins, and Ben Cox led the team to a 2-4 record. Running is life, but not all of it! What would cross country be without swimming at World's End, frisbee games, fight-club, and the jammin' countdown? The cross country team-sponsered Thanksgiving Day road race was as successful as in past years, with a high turnout despite the cold weather and unseasonal snow storm. Beloved outside of Hingham High as well, the team ran away with the 2nd place award for sportsmanship in their league in 2002!

Steve urges himself onward and upward well ahead of the competition.

Girls' Cross Country

The sport, the thrills, the excitement, the hills Blazing trails like never before, the girls' cross-country team and its captains have had fast times at Hingham High. League Champions as sophomores, this year's senior captains took over World's End and Planters Hill along with Siobhan Collins, Kimiko Ebata, Tammy Ioanilli, and Anna Tomasulo to end an all too speedy four years. A large underclassmen team contributed to the season's success. "You gotta want it to win it," and the team wanted it bad. Holla out to Cross Country!

◆ On your mark, get set, GO!!!

Field Hockey

What a fabulous season the 2002 Hingham Harborwomen Field Hockey team had this year with captains Meg Crowley and Kristin Mulligan and coach, Ms. Gordon! The superior skill of seniors Meg Chapin, Jaqui Crowley, Tracy Devine, Leah Marcus, Marcey Powers, and Krissy Vulgaris distinguished the 2003 team as exceptionally competitive and forceful. Patriot League All Stars Kristin and Jaqui sparkled this season as they were elected to the Marniner All-Scholastic Team. Hingham had a stellar performance in their victory over the undefeated Hanover team. The girls made it as far as the Division Two state tourney where they lost in the first round to a tough opponent, East Bridgewater. Fun times with Nims in the woods at Duxbury, and props to "the rookies." Oh yeah, and don't be fooled by those cute red kilts, the team's 2002 slogan commanded, "GET RUFF, GET TUFF!!"

Marcey looks for the goal. ▲ The seniors wait anxiously to be put back in the game. ▲

Football

This year's football team, with the great leadership of captains Matt Kiernan, Bill McKim, and Greg Paul as well as Coach Killenger, Coach Perkins, and Coach Langil, played well and made vast improvements as a whole. The guys played particularly well against Hanover and Scituate, their long-time Thanksgiving rivals. On an individual basis, players proved themselves to be very successful with Greg Paul and Steve Lyons as Patriot League All Stars, and Ben Marshall being the recipient of the Patriot League Sportsmanship Award. Their singlular, yet no doubt spectacular win was in their victory against Weston. Along with intense training, and those long practices reaching into the early evening hours, the season brought fun and memories (Ebbs in Quinn's basement, arm-wrestling and electric slides in the pep-rallies).

Football Cheerleading

The 2002 Football Cheerleading squad had a "flippin'" great season this year... literally! The girls took on various new stunts, took greater risks, thus bringing their skill level and abilities as a group and as individuals to soaring heights. Under the guidance of a new coach, Cristina Barbuto, and the smiling faces of captains Caitlin Gay and Jessica Soares, the girls made it all the way to the Patriot League Competition where they attempted to qualify for the state level. Seniors Sarah Barnes, Jennifer Giacchetti, Ashley Haley, Krista Kozlowski, Alexis Lindquist, and Jennifer Snyder truly brought down the house and pumped up the crowd at our pep-rallies and football games. The team will have some lasting memories from 2002, as such a huge emphasis was put on team-building and just plain hanging out, or should I say cosmic

Boys' Soccer

Led by senior tri-captains Nick Mucci, Kiernan O'Neil and Ben Prime, and Varsity coach Ken Carlin, the 2002 Hingham Harbormen Boys' Soccer team established themselves as the team with the least amount of losses and most number of ties of any team in Hingham's history. Early in the season, the guys were successful in tying their long-time rival, Duxbury, who went on to win the state championship. One thing that brought the team as far as the state tournament was definitely the togetherness: from pre-game feasts at Papa Gino's and Bernie's to those classic team nick-names: "Daouf," "Captain Crunch," "DSDF," and "Tomato." The famed leading scorer, Ben Prime, and number two-ranked goalie in the Patriot League, Kiernan O'Neil, emerged victorious as Patriot League All Stars as well as Eastern Massachusetts All Stars. Wow - what a great season - nice hustle boys and let's hope next year's team can compare!

Girls' Soccer

The 2002 Hingham Harborwomen Girls Soccer team blasted through an absolutely spectacular season. Joined for the first time by an assistant coach, head-coach Guy Enoch led an incredibly "driven" bunch of girls this past season, the 2002 team word being "DRIVE". The team's seniors, Beth Crenier, Katharine DeNinno, Colleen Lenhart, and Lyndsie Olsson were true power players. With the undying devotion and pep rallied by the four senior captains, Rachel Gabriel, Hilary Lynch (goalie and League All Star), Lauren Murphy (League All Star), and Katy Perry, the team made it to the South Sectional Quarter Finals. It came down the intensely heated moments of a double overtime shoot-out, in which Hingham lost by one goal to Dedham. As tough as a loss always is, the girls never forgot the fun of "being one of the girls" and will always re= member to "Smile and FROON!"

Boy's Basketball

The senior guys on the boys' basketball team have dribbled happily through their past four years at Hingham High. After the trauma of switching coaches, these "playahs" are happily under the instruction of Coach Rice. Throughout a very versatile season of ups and downs, captains Drew Sowyrda, Nick DeVito, and Scott Miller have made their last a season to remember. In other words, it was a veritable slam dunk!

Under head coach Dave Hickey, and assistant coach Megan Aucoin, Hingham's B-ball divas dunked their way through a fabulous season! Powered on by senior captains Hilary Lynch and Dierdre King, the team put up a great fight against their biggest competitors, Rockland and Duxbury. This year's team was of magnificent speed and height and definitely used it to their advantage. Senior girls never forget: Kristin Mulligan "worming" around the other team and making all her left shots, Amy Kulp wishing she were a point guard, Dierdre King squinting to see the number Dave is holding up, Hilary Lynch spending more time on the floor than on her feet, and Lauren Murphy absolutely tackling and annhiliating the other team. A spectacular season filled with such fond memories of arguments over "the warm-up mix," busrides of random conversation, and those pasta dinners.

Gymnastics

Clad in new warm up suits and sparkling new leotards, Hingham's gymnatics team tumbled, vaulted, and back walk-overed into a truly spectacular season! Coach Jayne Schlieff and senior captain Mallory Brady as well as junior captian Katie Donovan led the limber ladies to the All-League Meet, and major victories against Duxbury and Carver. With Mallory Brady and Jil Rocco as the two lone seniors along with key team members Hope Rathnam, and Erin Leary the team proved to be very strong in floor and beam excercises. Things which made the 2002-2003 season particularly memorable were: Scituate girls joining the team, obstacle courses, TGIFriday's, ice- cream, new warm-ups, canning, and home meets. The girls could also never forget "Got Hope? We do," pushups!, the pit races, and back walk overs with one leg (hmmm...).

Boys' Winter Track

What do you get when you add icy outdoor practices, fast-paced competition, and a team that will never give up? The Boys' Winter Track team! The boys have been on a roll for several years now with senior powerhouses that have carried the team. The captains, Brendan Aucoin, Ben Cox, Steve Fiascone, and Neil Markowitz, are very proud of their team and will never forget it. Neil and Josh Diorio were named Patriot League All-Stars for the 2003 season. The relay team of Brendan, Josh, Sean Hagan, and Adam Traina went to the All-State competition. Good job Muchachos! Whether they were pacing themselves for the 8 laps of the two-mile, getting their timing down perfect for the relays, or gaining height on their high jumps with each practice, the winning combination of determination and relaxation reigned supreme! Along with bus rides and tasteful toga parties, the boys will never forget the comfort those big blue track mats in the cafeteria provided after a hard day of school. Wrestling

Ah, the joys of wrestling season... 'tis the official season for Atkins. Well, all that shedding of poundage, pumping of iron, wearing of onsies (those alluring one-piece spandex getups), and three hour practicing really paid off for the boys of the 2002-2003 season. Senior captains Greg Kahn, John Ferrante, and Glade Ricart, along with powerhouse seniors Paul Mitchell and Logan Riley and a strong band of underclassmen, had a magnificent victory over Whitman Hanson, a major competitor. Coaches Keith Durham, Mr. Caniff and Steve Berte kept the team strong as well. The team put in tremendous effort, hours, blood and sweat, but never tears... these guys are too

Biology Club

The Hingham High Bio Club has gone all natural for these past four years. Advised by the quirky Mrs. Duffy, the group has explored the natural world from vernal pool to fresh water tank. This year's additions of scales and slithers to the preexisting jungle of plants and animals in Mrs. Duffy's room included a new two hundred gallon tank, housing Chinese water dragons (which are lizards, for those who aren't fluent in the Reptilian family lingo), an eight-inch long piranha, snakehead fish, and other South American Indo-Pacific fish. Leading the way as president was the bio-enthusiast Sean Hagan, who described the lovely piranha as "plate-sized." What's for snack-time at bio club, Sean? The Hingham High School French Club had some new opportunities this year with the arrival of the pre-schoolers. From the devoted French students, the youngest members of our school community eagerly learned to say the names of shapes and colors in French. Advised by Madame Brandt, club members took in the joys of a foreign culture. In the past, the French Club has taken trips to Quebec and even France. Voltaire would be proud of these enlightened scholars and their bilingual abilities!

■ Siobhan shows off the easiest French word to learn: "Violet!"

▲ Club members recruit preschoolers for their club in the years ahead. I see a budding French scholar!

■ Madame Brandt leads the club with a certain savoir-faire that only she could provide.

> Hey, they aren't just bilingual The Latin Club shows off thei Classical Mosaics. ▼

This year Latin Club really took off! Senior Maureen Gassert and junior Mary Healy served as consuls, senior Lindsay Meek as secretary, junior George Schwartz as treasurer and trusty senior Jane Mellors served as historian. The club held its first ever Traditional Roman Peacock Fest as well as its Holiday Saturnalia Party. In addition to watching Gladiator, Latin clubbers designed their very own T-shirts. This year the club discussed competing with other surrounding high school Latin clubs in the Latin Scholastic League Olympiad. Based on the stellar seniors of the club, including Brendan Aucoin, Matt Paget, Colleen Lenhart, Jed McDonald, Hilary Lynch, Alex Ramsdell, Katy Perry, and Erin Sylvester, Hingham would be unbeatable!

Spanish

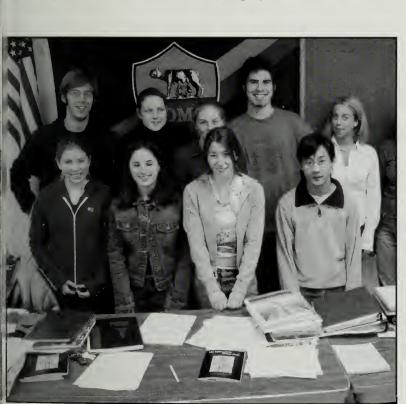

Senior presidentes Tammy Ioanilli and Amy Kulp, along with advisor, Senor Mullry, headed the fiesta of a club that the 2002-2003 Spanish club proved to be! Members spiced things up on those classic Mexican restaurant trips, and we're not talking Taco Bell! They visited El Sarape, and planned to explore the new Casa del Rey in downtown Hingham. The club raked in quite a profit as they sold fried dough at the homecoming festivities. What's next, chicos? A field trip to Tiajuana, perhaps?

▲ "Margarita" (Hilary) and "Lolita" (Katy) eagerly converse in Spanish. ▲

Les Miserables

This year's Drama Club musical was perhaps the most profound performance to ever hit the Hingham High stage. Les Miserables boasted the direction of Mr. Higgins and Mrs. Levy-Sisk, a cast and crew of over one hundred students, and three sold out houses a week prior to opening night. In a tale that rivals Dickens' for its strange twists of fate, the tragic story of an escaped convict, his adoptive daughter and her mother, the evil Thenardiers and their children, and a group of revolutionary students was played out three times over for entranced audiences. In peasant dress, the backstage crew, headed by Allison Eusden and Tyler Blair, maneuvered Mr. Garland's revolving stage and sets designed by Claire Karoff with splendid effect. This was a show that will not be forgotten soon. The cast and crew will always remember, "One more dawn, one more day, one day more!"

Math Team

Math Team ... do you have what it takes? It's no piece of cake, but rather a slice of "pi." Under the great leadership of Coach Baisden and Coach Healey, the team, especially its fierce seniors Steve Fiascone, Ben Cox, Neil Traft, Kristen Garrity, Jaqui Crowley, and Scott Owen had a great year, one of intense competition. On long bus rides, these calculating kids could be heard chanting: "Math Team is really good, what YEAH, what YEAH!!" The team motto, essentially the glue that held the team together, was: "Sin, sin, cosin, sin, 3.14159!" Props to Ben and Steve for memorizing all 112 of those digits of pi! Model UN

The Model United Nations is an international organization, and the Harvard MUN convention in which Hingham participates is one of the biggest conventions internationally. Joining the Hingham representatives were 2,200 high school students from all over the U.S., Turkey, Scotland, and China. Each school is assigned either one country or two. This year, Hingham got two: Micronesia and the Solomon Islands. While half of the Hingham delegation represented the Solomon Islands, the other half took on Micronesia. Out of that half, each went to a different convention. Mr. Kirkaldy led the group to the Harvard Convention where the students stayed from Thursday to Sunday at the Park Plaza Hotel. The presidents of this year's Model UN were Amy Long, Cadence Willse, and Liz Brennan. Thanks, girl's for representing Hingham!

National Honor Society

No, NHS is not just a "smart-kids club," it is more so a selection of students who devote their time to various services and charities. This year, under the strong and helpful advisement of Ms. Perelman, seniors Kristen Garrity as president, Tony Morash as Vice President, Ben Cox as treasurer, and Susie Hardy as Secretary led NHS through a wonderful and charitable year. Potluck planning meetings, such as those at the Garrity's and the William's, brought members together, often over lasagna and Caesar salad, to plan these community service events. NHS members organized and prepared a beautiful Librarian luncheon, took a joint "Stand in the Sand" with ADL, volunteered many Monday afternoons at the Hingham Food Pantry, raised money with candy sales, and sparked some healthy school-wide competition with the point-awarded dry-goods drive. How could we forget the magnificent advertisement for the drive put out by Susie and Kristen on the Friday show? This year the seniors did a spectacular job of keeping alive the flames of scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

Orchestra

The Hingham High Orchestra is one of the largest organizations at the school. This year's enthusiastic senior officers included Kimiko Ebata as president, Tony Morash as Vice President, Treasurer Adam Read-Brown, and Secretary Leah Marcus. The group, which meets 5 days B Period has a busy concert schedule, performing in the winter, spring, at an All-Town Concert and at a Pops Concert. Conducted by Ms. Sassano the orchestra has traveled in the past four years and performed in New York City, Virginia, Baltimore, and Montreal, representing the musical best Hingham has to offer.

Oceanography Club

Dissecting sharks and feeding fish, the Oceanography Club has had four great years of aquatic exploration! With Mr. Gauthier as their leader, the club members "submerged" themselves into the world of Jacques Cousteau and learned all they ever wanted to know about their friends with gills. With help from Mrs. Duffy's Biology Club, the Oceanography Club succeeded in mastering the science of the sea. Seniors Sean Hagan, Molly MacDonald, Emma Ross, Tia Vaickus, and many others had a great time getting up close and personal with baby sharks, snakehead fish, and other (more legal) forms of marine life, and will never forget what a shark's eye looks like in the palm of your hand.

Outer Limits Literary Magazine

Remember those bright happy boxes throughout English classes that say "The Outer Limits" on them? Well, each year, staffmembers of Hingham High's literary magazine, "The Outer Limits," wait for students to fill them up with heartfelt poetry, fiction, artistic doodles, college essays, maybe even some haiku. This year the editors were: Nina Beckhardt, Maia Hajj, and Leah Lundberg. This year they worked hard together, with the helping hand of Mrs. Fennelly, to put together a beautiful collection of student artwork and writing.

■ What are the consequences of not meeting deadlines? The Outer Limits team stays motivated.

Senior Video

This year's senior video staff is working hard, scouring the school for clips for our video yearbook! Led by Tyler Blair, Kip Doble and David Cartier, with the assistance of Mr. Thaxter and a competent staff, including Jacqui Crowley, Caroline Corbett, Ellen Tuite, Kristen Garrity, Sonya Genel, and Laura D'Amico, these boys and girls are working hard to give you a complete portrait of our lives at Hingham High, including sports shoots, drama shows, volleyball tournaments, and special events such as the Lip Sync Contest, Mr. Hingham High, and the Hypnotist. Not to mention the everyday life of the seniors of Hingham High School and the whole community. In short, the Senior video is a moving, audio yearbook - a yearbook that reads itself to you. So I hope you smiled when they shoved that camera in your face during lunch - despite the fact that they always seem to catch you at your most embarrassing moment, seeing the Senior Video is like reliving the best moments of our four years at high school!

Snowboarding Club

Members of the Snowboarding Club, often spotted tearing up various slopes such as Sunday River, Gunstock, Waterville, and Loon, are just a bunch of kids who like to get together and have a good time. Julia Collins provided the necessary Senior leadership and organized the club's numerous trips. These trips, coordinated through the school, allowed students to take advantage of reduced group rates, top of the line transportation buses (with TV's on them!), and to wake up mighty early on numerous Saturday mornings. But overall, despite long bus rides and chapped lips, Hingham High's Snowboard clubbers had a fantastic winter!

Student Council

Advised by Ms. Moore, the Student Council is an action-oriented organization comprised of student leaders empowered to give voice to the student body. Its primary objectives are fostering school pride and spirit, creating a positive environment, developing strong leadership skills, appreciating and recognizing faculty, working cooperatively with other school organizations, and giving back to and supporting the community. You can spot Student Council members' peppy smiles from miles down the These are the people responsible for Mr. Hingham High, Homecoming, the Lip-Synch Contest and the Hypnotist Show. S.A.D.D. Students Against Destructive Decisions

Acting as the moral conscience of Hingham High, the Students Against Destructive Decisions continued their campaign against the bad choices that could possibly be made, and their resulting consequences. In previous years, S.A.D.D. has sponsored such events as a reenacted car crash taking place at the school, "Grim Reaper Day" in which students would leave their classes and return as shades of themselves, symbolizing lives lost to drunken driving, and many other such events. Under the guidance of Mrs. Marvel and Senior members Cynthia Balunas and Sean Hagan, the club is also responsible for the colorfully-painted reminders posted around the school, especially at dances, to ensure the safety of all students. Thanks, S.A.D.D, for being conscientious!

S.E.A. Students for Environmental Action

The Hingham High chapter of Students for Environmental Action definitely does the dirtiest work of any other club at the school, all in the name of love for the planet. Advised by Mr. Garland, members meet Tuesdays and Thursdays after school in the cafeteria to dig barehanded through the recycling bins to recycle any cans or bottles possible. With Susie Hardy as a dedicated leader and Katy Georges, Emily Hamrock, Hannah Rogers, and Meredith Kelly among S.E.A.'s corps of seniors, the club is working hard to keep your planet clean. These ecologically-sensitive kids sometimes seemed to be fighting a losing battle when they found a half-eaten ham sandwich in the recycling bin, but they keep up the good work with an admirably optimistic spirit!

Traces

Traces is a vocational school program through which Hingham High students have the opportunity to learn skills that are not taught in a typical classroom. The participants spend the morning in school taking classes to fulfill academic requirements, and after lunch move to the Traces building. There, resources are available to students interested in learning woodworking metalworking, among other things. The program is available to all HHS students and is taught by Dr. Polowski and Brad Cooley. Senior members of the Traces program this year are Ken Lipsett, Bill McKim, Bill Morin, and Justin Osborne. Underclassmen members include Jeff Gill, Brian McIntyre, and Chris Wilcox.

Volunteer Club

Under the leadership of co-presidents Alisha Leahy and Molly Williams, the Volunteer Club worked selflessly this year to bring smiles to the faces of local seniors at the Cohasset Knoll Nursing Home. From singing Christmas carols, to joining weekly games of Bingo, these volunteers, through their youth and vitality, truly reaped the benefits of their time well spent when they saw the joy that they brought the senior citizens . Additionally, the Volunteer Club worked around the school to beautify our surroundings and simply make Hingham High School a more pleasant place to spend six hours of our day. The joyful spring flowers we see coming up are the results of the hard work of the Volunteer Club members contributed early in the fall of 2002. The group also put in welcome hours at the Mary Martha Learning Center. Buoyed by the benevolent smiles of senior members Tracy Devine, Colleen Lenhart, Lindsay Meek, and Lauren Murphy, as well as the two hardworking presidents and a strong corps of underclassmen, the good works of this club did not go unappreciated. With Ms. Roth serving as able advisor, the newly-founded club got off to a good start early in the year, and their continuing success with "random acts of kindness" practiced periodically for various members of our high school community ensure that the Volunteer Club, though it may miss its big-hearted seniors of 2003, will be an institution in Hingham for many years to come. Thanks, Volunteer Club!

WHHS TV

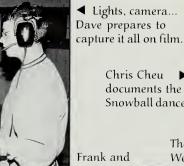

WHHSTV staff is responsible for bringing you the Friday Show and producing the skits that promote HHS events, keep the school updated on what's happening, and just simply make you laugh. While Mr. Thaxter and his TV Production classes do much of the work, the show is brought to you by Hingham High's beloved media icons, including Jeannette Pollara, Josh Diorio, Chris Cheu, Brandon Gay, Sonya Genel, Laura D'Amico and Kaitlin DuRoss. The studio schedule is rigorous as people meet on Mondays to discuss the week's show, and then work all week, editing movies and interviewing people about sports, drama, and upcoming events. The anchors are finally filmed on Thursday to bring you the stunning broadcast in your homeroom every Friday!

Ah, yearbook... where do we begin? Producing the Yearbook is a tremendous effort which, through the course of the year, involves every student in the school (at least we hope we didn't miss anyone). Speaking of missing people, there are editors on this page which are not pictured! They are Adam Read-Brown the Business Editor; Maia Hajj, the Layout Editor; and Nina Beckhardt, the Copy Editor. There are countless people to thank, but we definitely couldn't have done it without the help of every person on this page, and even more importantly, without the support of our wonderful advisors, Mrs. Silva and Ms. Audet. Yearbook had its ups and downs, fun times and excruciatingly-painfully-busy times, but, in the end, we came out of it with a book to be proud of. Hope you enjoy it!

Thank You Mom and Dad Thank you Mom and Dad

Brendan Aucoin: First of all, thank you Mom and Dad for everything. Also, Brian, Megan and Ali, you guys have always looked out for me, and made sure 1 did the right thing. It was always a challenge and a privilege to live up to the examples that you all set for me. Thank you to all my friends. John, we have been best friends since 1 can remember, there are so many funny memories that we have shared, thank you for being not only a great friend, but also a partner in crime. Anna, you have always been there to talk to me about anything, and 1 appreciate everything that you have done for me. Good luck to everyone, I hope we all keep in touch. Thank you to all the great teachers I had over the years; Mrs. Charif, Mr. Swett, and Mr. Kirkaldy. Thank you HHS, I had a blast!

Sarah Barnes: As the year has come to an end I would like to thank everyone who has been apart of it. Mom, Dad, and Laura, your my family and have been there every step of the way and I am very grateful for all that you have done for me. Brad, I am so happy that you have came into my life, I love you so much. As for my friends, we have all grown up since Foster and I am glad we have remained friends for so long, each and everyone of you have taught me so much.

Nina Beckhardt: Thank you to everyone who has helped me to become who I am... first and foremost, Mom and Dad: I love you more than anything. Mom- for making me the most perfect lunches everyday to every morning you wake me up with coffee and drove me to school so didn't have to walk from far... thank you for taking such good care of me. Dad, thank you for every one of my essay: you spent hours editing, every Thursday-night dinner we shared together and every college road trip we ever tool together. Without both of you high school would have been impossible. Whether nagging me or praising me you both are my fuel, my inspiration, and my motivation Matthew, I cannot describe how much of my heart you hold, I honestly do not want to imagine my world if you weren't in it... I love you. Mulligan, from fifth-grade Adida: sambas and toothpick-marshmallow structures up to field hockey seasons and AP English, you have been my trues friend. Tammy, I love you because you are "real." Leer from boy-advice-schpiels to dance team, you have beer there for me. Lindsay, together we know how to party... you are my other half. Sonya, thank you for being you, love you for it. Mallory, I love you because you make me look back and laugh. Chris, you have been a great frience to me. All my friends, you have made high school what i has been... a really good time. Ms. Lewallen, you are my guardian angel and the reason I ever survived the first semester of my senior year, thank you. Gillespie, in you have found a friend for life, you have been my emotiona coach and have given me some of the best and mos genuine advice I've ever received. Mr. Bliss, thanks for being such a "P.O.W.," you are an incredible teacher. To everyone, for all you have done for me, I love you and thank you.

Matt Brouillard: Mom, I'll never be able to thank you enough. Everything you do for me—it means the world to me. I'm sorry that I never seem as grateful as I should be I'm sorry for the attitude. I hope you can find it in you heart to forgive me for all the times that I've done wrong hank you for everything, for the ski trips to Vermont, for our vegetable stew, for having patience during my nevernding doctor's appointments, for the magnificently eautiful sunsets. Thank you for being my mom. I love ou. Always and forever.? Additionally, many thanks go ut to Mrs. Silva (from Patrick, of course), and Ms. ewellen. Without y'alls' encouragement, I never would ave made it through. When I told you that time that the vo best people in the school were congregated in the same oom, I was kidding by no means whatsoever. The sughter, the tears, the frustration...(even the deadlines!), ou two were always there for me. A thousand hugs and isses to you both:0)

1 deg Chapin: Thanks to everyone I've been able to laugh ith during these four years, all the people who've minded me not to take high school too seriously-I hope ve been able to do the same for you. Thanks to my parents or their unwavering support. Jacqui: FH buddies from the start-your presence was unfailing, even if it was behind the scenes. Liz and Katie- what we've shared is some of the craziest stuff no one else will ever understand... ever note the Janine/MB/MP days - it's been a "treat."

Isbeth Clifford: Thank you Mom and Dad, high school ould have been impossible without you! Thank you, Mr effernan for believing in me! Thanks to my girls: Jenn, Krissy, Caroline, Krista, and Christin. Special thanks to Jenn S. for quality summers and many mall trips! Good luck to everyone!

Beth Crenier: High School just wouldn't have been the same without you. Dad and Linda, thank you for everything. I really appreciate everything and anything that you have done for me. I couldn't have done it without you. Kate, you'll always be my little sister. Thank you for being there for me. I'm really going to miss you. John and Paige, I'll miss you guys too. Thanks for always making me smile. Thanks to the rest of my family: Lisa, Patty, Bob, Kirk, Matt, John M., Grandma and Grandpa Crenier, and Grandma Fleischman. Krissy, I don't know where I'd be right now without you. Thanks for all the memories, and memories to come. Jenn, thanks for always being you. I'm so happy that I have really good friends that I could share my high school experience with. Jane and Eleni thanks for everything. Mom thanks for being so strong, thanks for sticking with me. Brian thanks for everything, I'll always love you. I'll miss all of you, I love you guys. Thank you.

Jacqui Crowley: To my family: Dad, thanks for making me laugh until my sides hurt, and reading me Curious George stories. Mom, you are my best friend and I don't know what I would do without you. Ratty, thanks for being a great sister. Thanks to my friends for all of our adventures and always being there for me, I love you guys. A big thank-you to Ms. Lewallen, Mr. Swett, Mr. Kirkaldy, and Senor McAuliffe. We did it '03!

Laura D'Amico: Thanks Mom, Dad, Dj, and Jack for always supporting me in everything I have done. I love you. Thank you to Becky, Courtney, Dee, Deuce, Marce, Sarah, Scruff, Sonya, Steph, you guys are my best friends. Thank God for allowing us to come together like we did, I know we will never lose our friendships. Kev, thank you so much, for everything. Don't give up on me. ILY. Everyone, thanks for the memories that we've shared. I've had the time of my life, and I owe it all to you, so thank you!

Tracy Devine: Thanks Mom and Dad for all of your help!

Thanks Erin and Kerry for leading the way! Rats (you know who you are) you guys gave me the best times ever, and I will never forget it! Good Luck Class of 2003, have fun!

Josh Diorio: Thanks to my Mom and Dad for always being there no matter what happened and for providing me with everything I've ever needed. I love you both. To all my college friends: AS, MW, AS, JA, JE, BC, RB, RM, LEB, LAB, RB.

To Drama: EH, EB, ER, LM, CK, JN, ARB, ISL, RH, KC, LH, CP, MK, JM, EE, WH, NK, KG, DP, CD, KD, MB, MD, NS, LS, KSW, Mr. Higgins, Ms. Sisk, and Lacatell.

To Track: AT, LM, SF, BA, AT, TI, KG, SH,

GK, PB, Mr. Jewett and Mr. Ryan.

To others: MH, HH, SH, MC, JC, ER, MK, ET, KE, KG, JP, LD, NF, CM, MC, CB, LO and anyone else who has been a friend. To the Leonards, Grants, Boutiliers, Karoffs, O'Learys, Thibaults, Lydons and Gasserts, for being my second families and my homes away from home.

And finally, to Amanda and James. I couldn't ask for better siblings to look up to for 17 years. I would not be the person I am today if it wasn't for you two. I love you both.

Good luck, class of '03!

Liz Dunne: Thanks so much to all my friends (esp. Katie and Meg-love you guys), my parents my little bro (good luck Michael), my teachers, Ms Lewallen, and the class of '03-awesome luck in the future!!

Laura Dykes: There are so many people that deserve thanks for helping me get through an all four years of highschool. But mainly I wanna say thanks to the fam! Mum, Dad, Stu, Matt...I could NOT have done it without ya! Biiiig big thanks to all my friends...you were my motivation. Especially my closest friends, Gem, Claire, Sher, you have always been there, and always will be there. "Life brings tears, smiles, and memories... the tears dry... the smiles fade... but the memories last forever..." Good luck Class of '03, it's been an awesome ride, and I will miss you all!

Kristen Garrity: Thank you Mom and Dad for your amazing love and support. Kevin, thanks for helping me with impossible homework problems. Brendan, thanks for being my crazy little brother. To my friends, thanks for the great memories. I'd also like to thank all of my teachers, especially Ms. Leone, Senor McAuliffe, and Dr. Morin. Mrs. Krall, you are the greatest!

Maureen Gassert: I've been blessed with the most wonderful high school experience I could ever wish for. So, I want to express an emphatic thank you to: my parents of all their support in getting me this far; my wonderful sisters, Katie and Sara (no one could ask for better friends, but you just happened to be my siblings); my chauffeur and loyal big brother, Tony; my loyal acting buddy Chuck; the witty and kind Rickster; Justin, jester and king of Sarkan; Silly Josh, for making me laugh; Nat, for being the nicest guy I know; Neil, for falling out of windows; Rusty, for writing great books; Matty B, for teaching me to dance; Jenny, Molly and Leesie, my girltalk pals; Lovable Will nd crazy George, my lil bros; Dahan, sweet pianoman; Il the chorus boys, especially Bobby and Greg, for singing ontests and good stories; Corey, my Latin buddy; Alli O, or knowing how to be crazy; Lucy and Danielle, for fun imes; all of my teachers for inspiring me to reach for the tars and love learning, especially Dr. Cappers and Mr. Vauchope, for raising my spirits through the gift of music, and Mr. Higgins, for the opportunity and guidance to live my dreams; and the especially underground club known as the Kullt, that gave me not only an awesome group friends, but many crazy adventures, relaxing movie nights, competitive bowling, and heartfelt singing around the piano. Thank you so much to everyone who has been a part of my high school life, and 1 wish everyone the best of

onya Genel: To all my friends who took the time to get be know me when I was new and really show me what the friendship is, I want to give my greatest appreciation and love and thanks. I will never forget you guys, no one anderstands how important you are to me. Mom and had, how can I thank you enough? You have always given the truly unconditional love and support. I love you so such. To my sister, even though you are faraway I always eep you close. Despite what you may think your advice as always been heeded. There are a million other people ho I want to thank but they know who they are. Now I uess its time to go...Good luck Hingham High!

ean Hagan: Thank you hom, Dad, and Ross for ne continual support and notivation (thanks for etting me up every morn. hom). Thanks to all my eachers, coaches, and riends for making high chool both challenging nd fun. Dad, Mom, & Ross couldn't have done it vithout you, thanks again.

Ashley Haley: Mom, I love you so much! Thank you for being my best friend. Don't worry-I promise you'll never lose your little girl. Dad, I owe everything to you and so much more. You took me under your wing, though you didn't have to. You're my hero daddy-I love you. Kelsey, thanks for being my little sister. I admit it...I asked mom and dad for you. Stephen, thank you for coming into my life. I truly love you with all my heart. I'm still falling. Kevin, my big brother, my friend. Thanks for being there for me. Ahma & Ahmpa thank you for taking care of me and helping to raise me with values and beliefs. The stars at night are big and bright. Gramma, you embraced me and loved me. Thank you for everything. Caitlin, Krista & Sarah, thanks for just being there for me girls! We've all had our ups and downs together but I couldn't ask for better friends. You have given me memories to last a lifetime. I love you guys. And of course thank you to Amy, Uncle Chuck, Chucky, Christy, Uncle Tommy & Aunt Judy, Uncle David & Aunt Jan, Aunt Susan & Uncle Tommy, Colleen & Matt, Mrs. Smith. And thank you to every teacher who has ever impacted my life from Dolly's nursery school to Hingham High School. I couldn't have done it without you.

Emily Hamrock: Thank-you to my whole family, especially Mom, Dad, Nana, Mo, and (sometimes) Greg. To the O-6: Meg, Em, Heather, Susie, Claire: you are all responsible for me associating high school with fun instead of stress. Lauren, for singing along with me, to new friends senior year, and those with whom I have finally reconnected, thanks for making the smoking section of Ground Round a very exciting place: George, Greg, Matt B, Steve, Preston (if you read this) and especially IAN, who rocks my world. To the drama girls who held my hand at auditions: Elizabeth, Katie D. The Modest Proposal Crowd: Adam (before 10:30) Justin, Ricky, Courtney and Caitie P. And also an honorable mention to Josh: I am always your number one fan! Thanks to ninety percent of my teachers for really inspiring me, especially Mr. Higgins, Mr. Lackatell, Mr. Baisden and Mr. Garland and Mrs. Silva, and to the other ten percent who really tried. Finally, to everyone I don't necessarily see outside of school but I smile at in the hall - thanks for smiling back!

Susie Hardy: Mom, Dad, Mike and Ben, thank you for always loving me and being the best family I could ask for. Thanks to all my friends for being awsome. We had some great times and I will miss you all, especially the o6(sf's), you guys took me in as one of your own and gave me the best senior year I could have asked for. I wish all in the class of 2003 the best of luck wherever you end up, have fun.

Heather Harmon: To my parents: You both are my inspiration. Dad, thank you for always making me laugh and seeing the best in me, even when I couldn't. Mom thanks for always being there and listening — you're my best friend. Both of you have shaped me into the person I am today and I never could have made it through without your ceaseless guidance, support, and constant love. To my friends, old and new — we've had a BLAST and I'll never forget all the laughs and incredible memories we've shared—you are all such beautiful people. O6 & Company forever! I can't thank you guys enough for all the support, advice, and honesty. You've all affected my life in some way, no matter how big or small, and I want to thank you for giving me a reason to get up in the morning. To the class of 2003 - Appreciate every moment and take from it everything that you possibly can, for you may never be able to experience it again.

Ricky Hawkins: I'd like to thank my Mom and Dad for always being there to provide the help that I needed to get through the rough parts, as well as for feeding me from time to time. My brother and sisters, thank you for giving me rides when I needed them and helping me get into college. As for my friends... 1 can't thank you enough. Whether I've known you for 11 years now or I've just started talking to you late at night online, every single one of you is a part of me. I especially thank members of that infamous "Kullt," which started over something so simple as an invitation to go bowling. I thank all of those crazy people in the classes above that taught me how to have fun, and all the awesome people in the classes below that make me confidant in the fact that the fun will never stop. I thank Mr. Higgins, Mr. Garland, Mrs. Luce, and Mrs. Silva, for not just being my teachers, but for being my friends as well. Finally, I thank everyone else at Hingham High School for all being a part of the experience. It truly would not have been the same without every single one of you.

'ammy Ioanilli: Thank you to my family, friends, teachers, and coaches who have been awesome over the last four years. I love you all, thanks so much!

'aitlin Jeffries: Mom and Dad, thank you for all your ou are and will always be my best friends. Rat ack Thank you for giving me the best times all through igh school. Bri thanks for bein a great friend...good luck ext year! To ll my friends and family—luv you and miss you all!! Good tck 2003!

rista Kozlowski: First and foremost, Thank you, Mom, or the motivation to succeed. I can't thank you enough or all the effort you've put into my college search, and of op of that, raising me to be the person I am today. You've lways been there for me. Thank you, Chip for everything ou've done to help me out. I love you both. Daddy, Thank ou for helping me out when I needed it. Despite the istance, you've always been just a phone call away. I ove you. Susie, Thank you for all the advice you have iven to me. It has helped me out and I am sure it will ontinue to help me out in the future. Robert and Ryan, yo little brothers, thank you for being the best little bros I could ever have. Even if you grow to be taller than me, I'll still be your big sis. And Robert... make sure you still leave room for me to sleep when I come home to visit you! Thank you, Mike for supporting me wherever I decide to go to college. It's awesome to know that you'll be behind me even if I go 1000 miles away. Love you. I also want to thank all of my true friends. (You know who you are). Throughout the good times and the bad you still are there to talk to me when I need you. Elsbeth-never forget 27. Jenn and Jenn-Elvis, Daniel, Carla..the list goes on. Sarahjust thank you! Ashley, Caitlin, Alex, Julia, Steve, Rob, Caroline. Also, Good Luck at the high school, David!! As much as I cherish the times I have spent there, you'll need the luck getting through the next 3 years! Anyways, I'll miss every single one of you. Thank you for being here for me since kindergarten and I hope every single one of you leaves high school and remembers all of the good times we have spent together. Good luck guys. I'll miss you!

Dinesh Kurian: Dinesh Kurian would like to thank his family.

Alicia Leahy: It's hard to believe that four years have gone by as fast as they did. I just want to say thank you to my Mom, Dad, Jack, Lizzy and Julia, for all that you've done for me and the amount of support and love through all that I've done. I will miss you and ILU good luck with all that you do. KG, KE, JC,ET, and ES thanks for everything that you've done and I am so fortunate to have you guys as friends. With all that we've been through it just shows that we will stay together no matter what. KM you're the best! RCI can't thank you enough for every memory we've shared together, I don't know what I could have done without you! (ILU) thanks for always being there, you don't know how much I appreciate it! To the Cadigan's, God bless, you've been a big impact on my life, thank you!

Lastly to J, M, & E and my family it's been a lot of fun growing up together and the best times are just beginning!

Colleen Lenhart: Thanks so much to my family-1 love you all! Mom and Dad, thanks for always inspiring me to do my best and always supporting me. I truly appreciate and cannot thank you enough for all you have done for me. Kerrie and Patrick, I honestly do not know if I could have done it with out you-thanks for always being there for me no matter what. Jed, thank you so much for all of the unbelievable memories-I will never forget the fun times we had. Great thanks to all of my amazing teachers, especially Mr. Garland, Mr. Holley, Ms. Chodes, Mrs. Rielly, and Mrs. Luce-your unending consideration and thoughtfulness definitely did not go unnoticed. To all of my friends, thanks for the awesome times we spent together sharing the laughs, smiles, and tears. I will never forget any of it. Finally, thanks and good luck to the class of 2003!

Hilary Lynch: Thank you Mom and Dad for all your love and support, you are the best parents in the world!

Thanks Ryan, Kevin and Justin-I can't imagine what I would do without you guys, your love and advice are irreplaceable. To all my friends-Col, Lauren, Trac, Ems, Katy P, Molly M, Molly W, Cait, Lynds, and Caroline-I'll never forget the laughs we've shared and the memories we've made. Matt, Ben, and Jed-you guys are like three extra brothers, thanks for everything. To Mrs.Rielly, Mr.Garland and Ms.Leone-thank you for all your inspiration, you have taught me so much. Thanks again to my family and friends-I love you! Good luck to all the members of the Class of 2003-it's been awesome!

Ben Marshall: Thanks Mom, Dad, Emily and Katherine, and all the rest of my family that has helped and supported me over the years. Thanks to all of my teachers that have helped me learn. A special thanks to my friends for all of the good times. Hingham High Football Rules.

Lindsay Meek: To my family, thanks for all your love, support, and inspiration. I hope to make you proud! Thanks to all my teachers throughout the years. My friends, thanks for all the great memories. I love you guys! Finally, thanks to the class of 2003- it's been an amazing 4 years. Good Luck!

Kraig Moore: To my parents: To both of my parents-your support and limitless love is what has molded me into the person I am today, and I hope you are pleased since I am. As I continue to grow I hope your presence will always be as important and significant as it has always been. Thank you for the learning experiences and the opportunities in life that not all people get to go through. Finally thank you for being there when I needed you. I love you and I hope to make you both proud. To my prother: Thank you Kameron for being what a little brother hould be. You are very kind and loving, and you possess he qualities of a person who has experienced so much. Our selfless attitude towards me will be remembered. As picture what your high school graduation and what it vill be like, I can only see you surpassing me on many lifferent levels. I love you and all the best. To my teachers: hank you for the patience, guidance, and above all nfluence you have given me. Each year throughout High school there was a struggle at some point or another, and hanks to you guys I was able to rise above the struggles and overcome them (or at least get by with a C-). Special hank you to my language teachers; Mr. Ryan, Mrs. Thodes, Mrs. Henrikson, and Mrs. Tomecek who are well tware of my lacking performances, but thankfully never ave up faith in me. Also special thanks to Mrs. Sides for directly giving me direction on who I want to be in the cheme of life. Finally to Mr. Melanson for sacrificing ours upon hours of helping me make some sense of the kill that is math. To my friends old and new: Every single neeting and introduction has had some bearing on how grew and who I will become. The support, and kindness have received will remain a significant part of my life. Pecial thanks to The 4, The group, Gdoof, and Joanna. Good luck to all of you and may you live a full and uccessful life. Finally thank you to the class of 2003, you were an awesome class to be a member of.

Anthony Morash: To Mom, Dad, Jenn, Elizabeth, the nost supportive aunts and uncles and grandparents, hank you for 18 years of backing, encouragement, and he like. To Bill, Senor, and Frank for teaching me the skills t took to win. And to all my friends, the world is ours, I couldn't have gotten here without y'all. Thank you for relping me learn what's important in life.

Kristin Mulligan: Thank you Mom for your selflessness and support. Dad, thanks for believing in me even when I don't always believe in myself. Sean, my first best friend: thanks for laughing with me. Kathleen, thanks for making me proud of my "mini-me." Thanks to all of my friends for being there, laughing, and making high school fun. Special thanks to Nina for knowing what I'm thinking and understanding, Tammy for being like my second sister, Ellen for listening and being so genuine, Leah for laughing at my jokes. Thanks to all of my teachers and coaches that have taught me and helped me through high school. Thanks everyone, I'm lucky to have all of you in my life.

Justin Nestor: It is 6:15 three days after the deadline and I still can't figure out how I'm going to thank everyone who contributed to my "High School Experience." As someone who values nothing more than a good conversation, it is safe to assume that if we've ever spoken, this thank-you is to you. To all those who have graduated, and to all those who are still here, I love you like family. You are my family. To all those who have been a part of the "Epic" (AK) of High School, the smiles, the laughs, the tears, the fun, the fun, and the fun I thank you. What would high school have been without "the human embodiments of fun," a little known "Kullt," and the newly discovered members of my family of friends. "I want to thank you for everything you've done, I want to thank you for every smile and laugh, I want to thank you for everything you said to me, but most of all, just for being there, and for being you." - ACR-B

Emily Panetsos: Thank you mom, dad and auntie for all of the love and support that I needed to get through high school, it has paid off! Thanks to the 11 crew (M.L, G.S, L.D, K.M, K.R, M.M, B.O, C.S, M.C, V.D), the columbian, and gdoof for all of the great times and support, it was a blast. We did it!

Marcey Powers: Thanks Mom, Dad, Mitch, Tammy, Becky, Kristy, Donnie, and the rest of the fam for always being there for me, I love you. Thanks Laura, Dee, DuRoss, Sonya, Scruff, Sarah, Katy, Colleen and Stephanie, you guys are the best things that ever happened to me. Matt, thanks for everything. Everyone else, thank you for the memories, it's been fun.

Alison Rand: Thanks Ma-for being a typical Jewish mother. You poked and you prodded, but it pushed me to do my best. I don't show it but I'm thrilled that you care. Dad, thanks BAI-BUH for hanging around the house and farting when schoolwork kept me there. PYE, you are my most FAVORITE-ist one in the whole world and I am so proud of you that you don't even know. Thanks for being the best sister, and the best friend, ever. Yahtz, thanks for the encouragement; I promise I won't be a lawyer. Mama and Papa, thanks for the never-ending encouragement, the food, and for thinking my writing is good. Mammy and Up, thanks for inspiring me to venture north for my college applications. Thanks to all my friends, old and new, for being them. Thanks Jen, my hard-working partner in editorship. Thanks to my teachers, from South up, and to both Ms. Eastman and Mr. Nevader, for doing their jobs so wonderfully. Thank you Hingham, for being so pretty and safe. Thanks to the class of 2003 for being such a colorful, talented bunch.

Emily Randall: Thank you Mom, Dad, Julia, Eric, and Fran for all your love and support. Thanks to all of my friends: Emily, Claire, Meg, Susie, and Heather 06. To George, Ashley, Kip, Andrea, Rachael, Adam, Jackie, Eddie, the 420 MC, the whole sailing team, and all my other sailing friends. To Douggie for always being there. To Lindsey for being my other sister. To Ian, Greg, Steve, Matt, Meredith, Lauren, and Josh for making my senior year awesome. And finally to all my teachers, Ms. Eastman, and everyone else who has helped me over the past four years.

Adam Read-Brown: Thank you to everyone for making these four years such a good time. Thanks to my family, Mom, Dad, Sandra and Eliza for all of your help and encouragement. I couldn't have done it without you. Thank you Mr. Higgins for you never-ending commitment to acceptance and fun and for all the opportunities you have given me. To all of my friends, Ricky, Tony, Justin, Maureen, Katie, Nat, Russell, Josh, Ian, Emily, Claire, Drama, Cross Country, all of you kept me sane and having fun. Thanks to Kullt, especially Pam, for making Sophomore and Junior year special. You are all wonderful people. Thank you.

Jil Rocco: There are too many people to single out and thank. I just want to express EXTREME gratitude to everyone who has helped along the way, especially my family and friends. Without you, I wouldn't be the person that I am today, I wouldn't have made it this far, and I wouldn't have all of these newly discovered hopes and reams. Its been great, especially the past four years. I vishyouallthebestinthetimetocome,nomatterwhere ouareorwhatyouredoing.

Where in HHS...?

Looking back on our time at Hingham High, it's easy to see that there are people we met, places we went, and tests that we took that we will never forget. Shown here are a few snippets of our High School life. Some you might have seen every day, yet passed them by without a second glance. Can you identify and locate these school-related objects?

THE WAR ON TERRORISM

Over the course of the year, the world's attention focused on a chain of tumultuous terrorist events. In Afghanistan, the Taliban regime fell from power as U.S. troops crippled the al-Qaeda network and cleared caves in search of Osama bin Laden. World-wide, civilians and military personnel fell victim to terrorist bombs and acts of hatred. On the home front, "bioterrorism" became a common term after it was revealed that Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein was producing biological weapons. Hussein's defiance of United Nation's imposed sanctions prompted the United States to seek world support of military action against Iraq. Members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization wrestled over conflicting opinions on the issue, while North Korean leader Kim Jong II threatened to deploy nuclear weapons if Iraq was attacked. As tensions rose among political leaders, the world watched and waited to see what the next chapter in "The War on Terrorism" would bring.
